

Preparing to Meet the Bridegroom

“The day of the Lord will come like a thief.”

This is the warning of the apostle Peter to the saints of God during the days of the early church, and it is his warning to you and me today. He goes on to describe the devastation that will accompany the return of our Lord: “The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything in it will be laid bare.” How could our hearts not be gripped with fear as we read this prophecy?

Peter continues by saying: “Since everything will be destroyed in this way, what kind of people ought you to be?” That question, and Peter’s response, will be the focus of our Bible Conference. He says, “You ought to live holy and godly lives as you look forward to the day of God and speed its coming.”

How does God bring us to the place of holiness in a culture saturated with sin? How does He enable us to live godly lives when almost every voice around us is calling us to serve ourselves? How does God move us to “look forward”, when our loves become rooted in this world? How can we “speed the day” of Christ’s return?

THIS CONFERENCE IS TAUGHT BY BILL MILLS.

Four encouraging sessions:

“Where is This Coming He Promised”?

From the earliest days of the Church, there have been those who have questioned the promise of our Lord to return for His own. Just as God created the earth by His Word, He will keep His Word in the return of His Son.

God’s Desire for Everyone: Repentance.

As God gives us His heart, we will share His heart of evangelism. We will look at the challenges facing missions today, and how we can participate in fulfilling the “great commission”.

How Do We Live a Holy and Godly Life?

If we would heed Peter’s call to prepare for “the day of the Lord”, we will respond by living lives of holiness and godliness. What does that mean? What needs to change? How does God bring us to that place?

Looking Forward to Christ’s Return

The apostle John warned us about not “loving the world”, and yet our love for this world is often a great hindrance to participating with the Lord in preparing for His return. How does God turn our eyes from this world to heaven?
