

Deepening Relationships with One Another

Learn how to overcome the spirit of competition that permeates every arena of life, affecting even our most vital relationships.

In the midst of this world system, God is building a community of people that will reflect His heart. It is a people where encouragement and affirmation are freely given and where the most sought-after position is no longer to win, but to enable a brother to stand.

This conference explores the nature of the Church and how the Christian life is lived out in the context of relationships. The growing spirit of individualism and independence is contrasted with the call of God to live life together as members of one another in the Body of Christ. As our relationships are transformed by God, we become a sanctuary for one another and a means by which God's glory will fill the earth.

THIS CONFERENCE IS TAUGHT BY BILL MILLS.
