

Stirring Our Passion for God

Help, Lord, for the godly are no more,” David cries. In our generation, this same cry is being raised, “Where are the men and women of God?”

Where are those who hunger for God and His Word? Where are the men who pursue love and gentleness? Where are the women who seek godliness and perseverance?

This seminar will lead your congregation along the path on which God develops spiritual men and women of character. How do the weak become strong? The self-centered become God-centered? For those who hunger like David to be a person after God’s own heart, this seminar will be a great encouragement and a tool which the Holy Spirit will use to stimulate that process in their lives.

THIS CONFERENCE IS TAUGHT BY BILL MILLS.

Four encouraging sessions to help your people to:

Flee That Which Entangles Us

How do we become strong men and women of God? A significant part of the process is fleeing from a “speculative response towards Christ and His teachings, fleeing from competitive relationships, and fleeing from the love of money.

Pursue Righteousness, Godliness and Faith

We will look at the righteousness that God gives to us when we express faith in His Son, and the freedom of a “new covenant” relationship with Him. We will focus also on how our life flows out of “passion” rather than our insights.

Pursue Love and Perseverance

We will see endurance as one of the most critical character qualities in the Christian life.

Pursue Gentleness and Cling to a Life That is Eternal

The powers of this world that threaten, manipulate, intimidate and destroy are contrasted with the power of God that serves and gives life to others. As we “take hold” of who God has called us to be in His Son, we become part of the building of His Kingdom which will last for all eternity.
